Regina is middle point of Edmonton-Superior Oil Pipeline. The pumping station in Regina supplies crude from the pipeline to the two Regina refineries or pumps the crude on to Superior, Wisconsin, as may be required.

Top Right:

Packing house products account for a large amount of Regina's industrial payroll.

Centre Right:

Regina is headquarters for many distributors of the farm machinery that is so vital to the prairie economy.

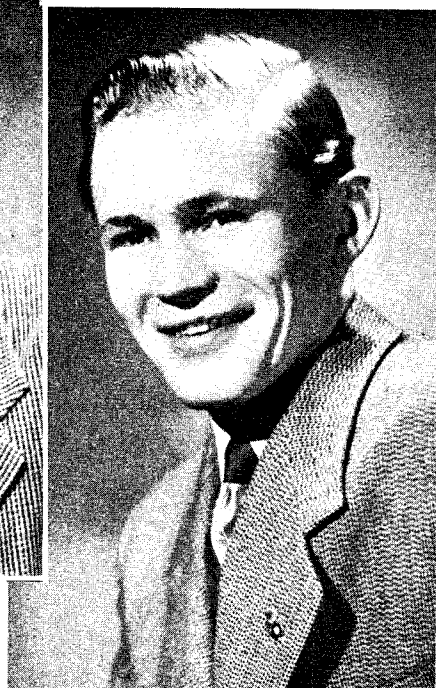

Bottom Right:

The prairies around Regina are suited for dairy farming which leads to the manufacture of butter, cheese, and other dairy products.

Agriculture

Top Left:

The Regina Exhibition yearly attracts outstanding entries for public inspection, judging and sale.

Centre Left:

The heavy clay soil around Regina has long produced wheat of the highest quality. A familiar scene in the fall is the combining of wheat.

Bottom Left:

Typical examples of Canada's finest stock, as exhibited at the annual Regina Exhibition.

HARRY 'BLACKJACK'
SMITH (c) and Quarterback GLEN DOBBS
of the Saskatchewan
Roughriders.

LLOYD SAUNDERS interviews MAURICE
RICHARD (L) and ELMER LACH of Montreal
Canadiens during a training school in Regina. Regina is the home of many fine hockey players and teams.

AL PRINGLE of Lumsden (centre) receives the Southern Saskatchewan Consols Trophy from CHARLIE BRYAN, while LLOYD SAUNDERS airs the event. Curling is one of Canada's most popular winter sports, and every town has it's own curling rink.

Meet the Manager...

From the night of July 29th, 1922, Broadcasting Station CKCK has grown by leaps and bounds to its present position as one of the outstanding broadcasting stations in the Dominion of Canada. Through 29 years of continuous broadcasting service to the people of this great province, CKCK has, at all times, endeavored to present a program schedule of entertainment and information designed to please most of the people — most of the time.

How well our station has succeeded through the years is reflected in our constant growth by the many interesting stories and pictures to be found within these pages, and the ever increasing part CKCK plays in the daily lives of more and more of the people of this province.

We, the people of Broadcasting Station CKCK are proud of our organization. We are proud of the city and province in which we live, and, with this ever increasing Saskatchewan audience, are daily reminded of your trust and the stewardship of ever greater public service.

We trust you will enjoy this picture story of CKCK and the area which we serve, and, we hope you will ever increasingly accept our invitation to:
